This information is subject to change without notice. Changes from the last update are highlighted. Visit Yukon.ca/COVID-19 to see the latest updates.

The Emergency Measures Organization has lowered their activation to a level 1. We now providing the public update once a week, starting June 25, 2020.

Yukon numbers	Confirmed cases: 11	Recovered: 11	Negative tests: 1,233	Pending results: 6	Total tested: 1,250

Emergency status: a state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020. It was extended for another 90 days on June 12, 2020.

Health care
- Yukoners can now choose one other household to join up with and don't have to practise physical distancing with people in that household. This is called the "double bubble." Once you choose your bubble, you can't change it: https://yukon.ca/en/news/may-19-2020-covid-19-update
- Outdoor visits for long-term care residents are now permitted.

Travel and borders
- Anyone entering Yukon must check in with an Enforcement or CBSA Officer and provide their destination, contact information, and declaration. Individuals entering Yukon must self-isolate for 14 days, with few exceptions.
- People in Atlin, Lower Post, Fraser, Jade City, Fireside or Pleasant Camp are exempt from the 14-day self-isolation period, if they have not traveled outside of Yukon or their home community in the past 14 days.
- The Government of Canada will now require temperature screenings for all passengers travelling to and from Canada:https://www.canada.ca/en/transport-canada/news/2020/06/temperature-screening-to-be-required-for-travellers-at-canadian-airports.html
- Canada and the U.S. have agreed to extend the current measures in place along our borders until July 21, keeping them closed to non-essential travel.
- Territorial campgrounds are open with some restrictions: www.Yukon.ca/camping
- Starting June 22, Parks Canada will be reopening camping at Kluane National Park and Reserve. Learn more: https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/yt/kluane/visit/covid-19-info

Businesses and financial relief
- The Governments of Yukon and Canada have taken steps to support local workers and businesses: https://yukon.ca/en/covid-19-support-yukoners
- Disability Services families are receiving additional funding to support them during COVID-19: https://yukon.ca/en/news/disability-services-families-receive-additional-support
