Emergency status: a state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020. It was extended.

Health care

- From Tuesday, October 27, to Monday, November 2, we tested 114 people at the COVID-19 Testing and Assessment Centre in Whitehorse.
- With the COVID-19 pandemic, this year the flu vaccine is more important than ever.
- The COVID testing centre's hours of operation are 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Sunday. Referrals are no longer required for a COVID-19 test.
- To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.

Travel and borders

- Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until November 21.
- On-site road border personnel are transitioning from the current 24-hours a day schedule to 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Alaska Highway and Junction 37 borders.
 - Travellers arriving outside of these hours will be required to stop at an on-site kiosk.
 - They must sign a declaration and submit their self-isolation plan, along with a contact number when they arrive from outside of BC, the NWT or Nunavut.
 - Completing the self-declaration is required by law.
- Residents of BC, Nunavut, NWT and Yukon are allowed to travel in those jurisdictions without the need to self-isolate for 14 days in Yukon.
- Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.

Businesses and financial relief

- The Yukon Business Relief Program has been extended until March 31, 2021.
- The Government of Canada is extending the Emergency Wage Subsidy to the summer of 2021.

Enforcement and other guidelines

- Two people have been charged with not following self-isolation requirements. One person was charged on October 28 and another person was charged on November 2.
- All Yukoners are reminded to adhere to Yukon's guidance on gatherings and keep social groups small and intimate. Your social bubble can include 15 people but you should not socialize with more than 10 at a time indoors.
- Be kind and understanding. People in transit through the territory are now driving in winter conditions. Report concerns at <https://yukon.ca/en/cema-report>.
