

APRIL 17, 2020 at 3:30 p.m.

This information is subject to change without notice. Changes from the last update are highlighted.

Visit Yukon.ca/COVID-19 to see the latest updates, find closures, and use the self-assessment tool.

Yukon tests	Confirmed cases: 9	Recovered: 7	Negative tests: 839	Pending results: 4	Completed tests: 852
--------------------	---------------------------	---------------------	----------------------------	---------------------------	-----------------------------

Emergency status: a state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020.

Health care

- Licensed child care spaces in Yukon are limited to critical and essential workers and vulnerable families in response to COVID-19 pandemic.
- A respiratory assessment centre is open in Whitehorse to support people with acute respiratory illness who need medical assessment. Yukoners will be referred to the centre from 811, a family physician, Yukon Communicable Disease Control or a hospital emergency department.
- Yukon hospitals have suspended all non-urgent or routine services. Hospitals will continue to provide urgent emergency care. No visitors are allowed at Yukon hospitals, with few exceptions.

Travel and borders

- As of April 17, increased Yukon border restrictions have been introduced in response to COVID-19 under the Civil Emergency Measures Act. Learn about the restrictions <https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19/border-enforcement-during-covid-19>
- Anyone entering Yukon will need to check in with an Enforcement or CBSA Officer and provide their destination, contact information, and declaration.
- As of April 15, 2020, anyone entering Canada must have an adequate self-isolation plan in place; those with no plan will be directed to a quarantine location for a mandatory 14-day self-isolation period.
- The Canada-U.S. border is closed to non-essential travel. Avoid all international travel.
- If you have travelled outside Yukon in the last 14 days, you must self-isolate for 14 days as soon as you arrive in Yukon. This is mandatory. Learn more at <https://yukon.ca/en/information-self-isolation>.
- People in Atlin, Lower Post, Fraser, Jade City, Fireside or Pleasant Camp are exempt from the 14-day self-isolation period, if they have not traveled outside of Yukon or their home community in the past 14 days.
- Avoid non-essential travel to Yukon’s rural communities. Residents of rural Yukon communities are advised to limit their visits to Whitehorse if possible.
- Workers entering Yukon, including miners, must self-isolate for 14 days. <https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19/guidelines-work-camps-during-covid-19>

Businesses and financial relief

- The Government of Yukon released guidelines for the delivery of critical, essential and other services. Learn more at <https://Yukon.ca/essential-critical-services-covid-19>
- The Governments of Yukon and Canada have taken steps to support local workers and businesses. Visit Yukon.ca/Work to learn more about these measures.
- The Government of Canada has extended eligibility for the Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB).

Enforcement

- A full list of the Chief Medical Officer of Health’s orders and advice can be found on Yukon.ca. Orders are now enforceable under the Civil Emergency Measures Act (CEMA).
- If you have questions about borders and enforcement, or would like to report a possible infraction of CEMA orders, you can email covid19enforcement@gov.yk.ca.