Emergency status: a state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020.

Health care

- A respiratory assessment centre is open in Whitehorse to support people with acute respiratory illness who need medical assessment. Yukoners will be referred to the centre from 811, a family physician, Yukon Communicable Disease Control or a hospital emergency department.
- Testing criteria now includes a wider range of symptoms. Those who have not travelled can now get tested.
- Government of Yukon is providing guidelines to help health care practitioners who aren't doctors and nurses to reopen their businesses: <https://yukon.ca/en/news/may-8-2020-covid-19-update>
- COVID-19 case and test information on Yukon.ca will be updated every weekday, rather than daily.

Travel and borders

- As of April 20, Transport Canada requires air passengers must wear non-medical masks.
- Anyone entering Yukon must check in with an Enforcement or CBSA Officer and provide their destination, contact information, and declaration. Those entering Yukon must self-isolate for 14 days.
- The Canada-U.S. border is closed to non-essential travel.
- People in Atlin, Lower Post, Fraser, Jade City, Fireside or Pleasant Camp are exempt from the 14-day self-isolation period, if they have not traveled outside of Yukon or their home community in the past 14 days.
- Workers entering Yukon, including miners, must self-isolate for 14 days: <https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19/guidelines-work-camps-during-covid-19>
