October was a very busy month at the Centre! 53 people attended the first Tagish Oktoberfest and 65—70 people attended the Halloween Party. Both events were awesome, and, as always, these events were huge successes because of volunteers and donations.

For Oktoberfest, thank you Ursula Angerer, the Delhi, Shelley Penner, and Yukon Brewery for food and drink donations. As for volunteering, thank you to Susan Baker, Kevin Barr, Mitch Dupont, Barb Geroux, Louise Girard, Peter Hamm, Vicki Hancock, Rob Hopkins, Shelley Penner, and Boyd Pyper. And a BIG thank you to Kevin Barr for stepping up to play, Peter Bohak for suggesting that this event take place, Cleo Hosni for doing a variety of work tasks, and most of all, Shelley Penner for putting in the most hours and basically ensuring this event happened! Congratulations and thanks to all of you!

For Halloween, thank you to Lesli Barnes and Jane Hermanson for all the work they put into organizing this event. Baking, getting door prizes, decorating, cleaning, etc. These women did a lot of work, so definitely say thank you when you see them next! Also, Ursula Angerer for food preparation and other work, Cleo Hosni for food donation, Shelley Penner for assisting, Extra Foods for the pumpkin donations, and Robert Vallee for performing!

Home School Social

The Home School Social group is meeting regularly. Every Monday from 1:30—3:30 PM, there will be activities and programs for home schooled children. Some days there will be activities at the Centre and some days there will be trips to other areas.

This event is for children of all ages. It will be fun! Parental supervision is required, but it will be fun for parents as well! If there are any questions, please ask Colin at 399-3407 or recreation@tagishyukon.org.
